WANTS CASE THROWN

OUT OF COURT Attorney Geary Thinks Automobile

Owner's Rights Have Seen Violated. Attorney John C. Geary in the crim Altorney John C. Geary in the criminal court of common pleas at New London Tuesday morning took a fling at the country justices, who prey upon automobile tourists when he declared the proceeding in the case of the state vs. Leon Samuels of New York city was "false and fraudulent." Attorney Geary moved that the case against Mr. Samuels, who is a wealthy New York business man, he erased from the docket.

Attorney Geary with much emphasis said: They seem to have an idea in some places that the automobilist is a person with no rights that anyone is bound to respect. Tribute is levied by methods in some places that would make a Barbary pirate blush."

Attorney Geary said Samuels was passing through Old Lyme by autobound for New York. He was halled by State Policemen Jackson and Ruod and after a controversy was arrested and brought before Justice of the Peace George Griswold. Then, said Attorney Geary, Samuels was found guilty without any court having held session and without any warrant havsession and without any warrant hav ing been drawn up against him and was ordered to leave $50 for an ap-peal. The receipt given Samuels for the $50, the attorney said, stated that was for an appeal to the superior ourt, to which the case could not court, to which the case could not come on appeal. He said unfortunate-ly he had mislaid the receipt and could Mr. Geary said the information on which the case in the common pleas

Mr. Whittlescy said
the proceeding was proper.
Attorney Gearry said he would narrow his motion down to the claim that Samuels could not be presented except on a properly drawn warrant.
Judge Waller said he would reserve decision until next week.
Justice Griswold and other witnesses were in court, but Judge Waller such amounts and with such surelies as the Board of Managers may re-

FATHER MATHEW LETTER Auditors - William . H. Oat, S. How-ard Mead. TO ST. MARY'S SOCIETY One of the questions asked as to the application of help to be given by the Valued Gift Made by William H.

Norwich association was whether, if the Norwich sanatorium was full of patients, the funds of the association could be used to assist a patient who in their building on Broadway, Felix Callahan made the society a notable presentation in behalf of William H. Shleids. The gift was an autograph letter of Father Mathew, addressed, Hon. William A. Buckingham, then of Norwich, in which Father Mathew declined with regret the invitation which the city council had extended to him to visit Norwich as a guest of the city in September, 1849.

The letter is written entirely in Father Mathew's own handwriting or might have to be sent to a sanatorium in another part of the state. The an-swed made was that such a case could be dealt with through the by-law pro-viding for amendments to the constiwhen the meeting sujor net the journed subject to the call of the fresident. RETIRES FROM BUSINESS. S. F. Gibson Has Had Active Caree of 54 Years as Tin and Sheet Metal On April 1 after an active business life of 54 years during the latter score of which he has been a tin and sheet metal worker and a dealer in furnaces for himself, Savillion F. Gibson re-tired from business having sold out to Charles E. Whitaker of Asylum street. Born in Lisbon on August 22, 1841 he was engaged in the tinsmith bus iness before he was 21 years of age. After being employed with others for 34 years he started out for himself and has since prospered.

On August 2, 1862 he enlisted in Co. A, 18th regiment, Connecticut Volunteers and served three years. The regiment was in command of Captain C. Davis and Adam H. Lindsley was first lieutenant, the late Chief Jus-tice Torrance being second sergeant. Mr. Gibson was fortunate enough to escape injury during the war but was captured and for a few weeks was confined on Bell Island and in Libby prison. They were exchanging prisoners at that time and he was released with others in this way. On June 15th he was captured at Winchester. Mr. Gibson was a member of Wauregan Hook and Ladder company of the old volinteer fire department serving for 3 years, six years of that time as fore-man. At the time of the big conflagration in Boston he was foreman and with others took the "Ghost" so-called o the fire.

Mr. Gibson is a member of Norwich lodge of Elks, No. 430, B. P. O. E.. Norwich Aerie of Eagles No. 367, and of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R. On April 25, 1868, Rev. J. Riley John-son united Mr. Gloson in marriage with Miss Margaret Gannon, a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., and her death occurred several years ago.
